Sleep Medicine

Centra Home Sleep Testing Center

Centra Medical Group (CMG) Sleep Wellness Center offers the Inspire Device as a secondary treatment for moderate to severe Obstructive Sleep Apnea (OSA). This option involves a surgical procedure by an ENT surgeon, implanting a generator in the chest and a wire to the hypoglossal nerve. Before surgery, patients must undergo a drug-induced sleep endoscopy (DISE) to confirm the airway collapses in the right direction for Inspire to be effective.

Referral Criteria: *Prior to referring to ENT, please refer to the CMG Sleep Wellness Center to ensure that the patient is a candidate for Inspire

- Apnea-Hypopnea Index (AHI) between 15-65 events an hour
- Updated sleep study within 2 years
- Previous attempt at Continuous Positive Airway Pressure (CPAP) therapy
- For commercially insured patients, BMI of less than 32
- For Medicare/Medicaid patients, BMI of less than 35

How to Refer:

*Please note, providers at Centra Home Sleep Testing Center can follow the referred patient for their sleep disorders or if referring provider prefers to manage the patient, the results can be sent to referring provider's office
